Being Who I Want to Be

’Spiritual Consciousness’ Matters

William F Pettit MD

Physician - healer of the body

Psychiatrist - healer of the soul

William F Pettit MD

Philosopher – lover of wisdom
Theosopher – realizes the divine wisdom within all human beings Educator – one who draws out the innate wisdom

42 years of Exploring Universal Principles: Mind, Consciousness and Thought

Some nuggets that I have uncovered in the journey

Being WHO I want to Be Becomes easier as I realize
WHAT I am
BP

I have no desire for you to believe what I say,

Only that You listen with presence and an open heart

Understanding any System Sufficiently

Be it Gravity, Electricity or Life

Brings:

Simplicity - to apparent complexity

Safety - unlikely to harm self or others

Optimization – uses the system to its full potential

What I see about the system of
- of what is often referred to as the divine/God
- and its connection to life

My hope is that you will see psychological innocence

in yourself and others

Experiencing love and forgiveness for our self and others

Is vital to our ability to give and receive love freely

NOW

is all that exists

Only LOVE is Real:

Everything else is made up

With every conversation I am creating. It's all I do all day long.

Actually, it's all you do all day long too. You can not not create

SH

The three universal Principles of Mind, Consciousness and Thought are a metaphor gifted to Sydney Banks in 1973

www.sydneybanks.org

They point to the nature and attributes

of the formless and formed Energy of creation

The Nature of this Energy is

LOVE

The Attributes are:

Intelligent - Mind
Aware - Consciousness
Creative - Thought

Mind, Consciousness, Thought spiritual gifts that

- enable us to see creation
- guide us through life

Life is a divine dream suspended in time space and matter

SB

The divine passes from the formless to the form creating the spiritual theater called life

All of creation is a participant

in this spiritual theater called life

As human beings
we are also spectators

We can realize that we are divine energy in form

Love and Wisdom lie within the consciousness of all human beings as an internal guidance system

Each of us creates our personal reality

through these Principles, one thought at a time

We are separated by personal thought

We are joined by:
Mind, Consciousness, Thought

Everything is One
Divine Cell

SB

All human psyches are rooted in universal truth and no person's psyche is better than any other's

SB

Only to the degree of the individual's psychological and spiritual understanding does it appear to vary

… look within because the vastness of the physical earth and sky with all its solar systems is miniscule compared to what lies within each living soul on earth

It is impossible to be Broken or Lacking

Creation is the Manifestation of

Love in Motion

COMING HOME - Sue Pettit

Coming home to peace and quiet

Coming home to feelings warm.

Coming home where there's a fullness

where love in me is born.

Coming home's

a simple journey

takes no movement on my part.

Instead of listening to my thoughts

I listen with my heart.
